To the Class of 1996:

It is truly a pleasure to extend to you my congratulations on the completion of your high school education. You have reached an important milestone in your life. The faculty, administration, and I are proud of you.

Was it only four years ago that you arrived at PVMHS as eager freshmen, waiting anxiously in the field house for your name to be called? You have faced many challenges during your high school career. I only hope that you have learned from each new situation.

You have left your mark on PVMHS in the academic world, on the playing fields, on the stage, wherever you chose to make your presence known. I have enjoyed watching you develop into the young men and women you are today.

As you prepare to leave high school, please hold on to the friendships you have formed. Come back to visit your teachers; you have been lucky to have so many adults care about you. We would love to see how you "turn out".

We wish you much happiness and success as you enter the world beyond PVMHS.

Sincerely,

Joan Carr

I Love You

I Love You For That Certain Smile That Cheers Me When I'm Blue.
I Love You For That Tender Kiss That Warms Me Through And Through.
I Love You For That Gentle Hand Your Understanding Touch, Your Eyes That Somehow Seem To Say, "I Love You Very Much".
I Love You For Your Faith In Me, For Your Sweet And Gentle Ways
For The Many Thoughtful Things You Do So Often Without Praise.
I Love You Dear For All These Things And A Million Others Too,
But Most Of All For What I Am When I'm With You.

In Memory Of Paula Ferriera

CLASS HISTORY

Well, can I just tell you, these past four years have been hectic for me. I knew what was in for me the very first day the class of 1996 walked through my door. It was a warm September morning in 1992. Close to 400 invaders filed into my fieldhouse and trampled all over my bleachers. They were a rowdy bunch; they could hardly hear their names being announced over the megaphone as to which homeroom they belonged. They followed their homeroom teachers to their homerooms and that was the beginning of the end . . .

Well the years of torment began that morning. My poor lockers took a beating. The kids who couldn't open them by combination lock would kick them. Oh, and those kids were dumb! They were always getting lost in my long dark corridors, forgetting that A-house was blue, B-house was red and C-house was orange. How many times do you think I caught kids attempting to follow directions to my pool or my elevator? (The funny thing is I do have an elevator but they couldn't even find that; and, if they could find it, they couldn't use it anyways, so, what did it matter to them?)

I shouldn't complain too much, though. Those Peabody Veterans Memorial High Schoolers made a nice name for me. The Varsity girls basketball team made it all of the way to the State Semi-Finals only to be defeated by Acton-Boxboro by one point. I was proud of those girls. My very own Peabody High band went all of the way to New York for a competition and won! However, that doesn't mean that I didn't rejoice in June when it was time for my three month vacation. That was a vacation that was well deserved!

That year the class officers were Orlando Pacheco as president, Eric Polonsky as vice president, Katie Allen as secretary, and Kristen Sciolli as treasurer. Mrs. Osterfield, the dear lady, chose to be their advisor for the next four years.

September of 1993 came quicker than ever. Now, the little darlings would return to my school as sophomores (huh, those wise-fools). Big guys, they thought; they were upperclassmen now. They were finally able to torture the freshmen, and believe me, they had a blast doing that. This year was pretty exciting, though. Those little cherubs were getting their learner's permits and going to sweet 16 parties every weekend. Oh boy, was I ever scared when I saw the Tanner City Auto School or the Exlent Driving School cars show up out front at the close of school. That meant that pretty soon they would be getting their licenses and there would be no supervision in the car with them. Good Grief!! That year was a banner year for the football team. Those boys made it all of the way to the Division 1 Superbowl at Boston University's Nickerson Field. We CRUSHED Saint John's Prep with a wailing score of 36-0.

That year was also their first car wash. Mrs. Osterfield and Mrs. Yanofsky, who joined Mrs. O. as co-advisor, decided it was time to raise some real money for this class, and that is exactly what they did. Those who helped had a good time; even if they did get into trouble for having water fights. The class officers that year were Orlando Pacheco as president, Ryan Sauk as vice president, Katie Allen as secretary, and Kristen Sciolli as treasurer.

The summer of '93 passed fast and sure enough it was September again. This time when those kids walked through my front door or even, scary as it may seem, the student parking lot entrance I noticed something different about them. A lot of the kids really grew up. They realized this was the "most important year of their high school career" and acted accordingly.

They started the year off great with their first class event-The Junior Halloween Party. It took place at the Community Life Center off of Central Street. Thanks to the class officers that year (Orlando Pacheco, president: Evy Poulopoulos, vice president: Rebecca Goncalves, secretary: Kristen Sciolli, treasurer) and the homeroom representatives, it was a minor success. Not many of them went, but the ones that did had a great time. Prizes were awarded to the best costumes. Some of the winners were Monopoly, The Flintstones, a cute couple of bees, and the Phantom of the Opera. The pieces to Monopoly were Evy Poulopoulos, Nicole Caioco, Kate Moraitis, and Deanna Matthews. The Flintstones were Melissa Freeman, Loren Dullea, and Breanne O'Rourke. The cute little bees were Lisa Friedberg and Michelle Mirasolo and the Phantom of the Opera was Reggie Hui.

Those Peabody High athletes did wonderful as per usual. The football team went to the Superbowl again however, this time they lost to New Bedford 21-12. Members of the swim team broke school records. It was a sad year for the girls basketball team, though. They had a winning season but after it was all over their coach Jane Heil who coached for 17 years announced her retirement.

Then, perhaps one of the biggest events of high school arrived: the Junior semi-formal. On January 6, 1995 at Jimmy's Allenhurst in Danvers from 6:30 to 11:30, the class of '96 ate, danced, and laughed the night away. All of the guys were dressed sharply in their suits and the girls were all decked out in their dazzling dresses.

Not long after the semi, prom tickets went on sale. When it came time to purchase their tickets in my cafeteria there were often quarrels over if all of the students paid their dues. For the most part, most of those little devils had to pay all of their dues then. Everyone started to get ready for the biggest night of their junior year. "What dress are you wearing?" and "Who are you going with?" was the common chatter down in my cafeteria by all of the girls getting ready for their dream night. The guys all seemed to wonder what the big deal was and they were sick of that topic of discussion.

That unforgettable night went by way too quickly after the months of preparation. On April 28, 1995, from 6:30 to 11:00 pm at the Danversport Yacht Club in Danvers they danced the night away with Johnny K. From what I hear, he made the night a blast. I guess the poor kids had chicken surprise for dinner. Well, one thing they learned from that experience was to eat dinner before the prom the following year. Prom king and queen were Angelo Minichello and Evy Poulopoulos. Members of the queen's court were Melissa Enos, Sam Racki, Heather St. Jean, Cheryl Bergeron, and Karen Rogers. Members of the king's court were Mike Masterson, Todd Goldstein, Orlando Pacheco, Mike Proto, and Mike Fagone. Everyone had a great time and it was definitely a night to remember.

After the prom the members of the class were getting itchy to get out of school for the summer. To raise everyone's spirit, Student Council worked very hard to put together spirit week. To demonstrate their school spirit they decorated my halls and wore my school colors blue and white. One day was a big hit! They played music in my halls between the classes. Everyone was in a great mood and I even caught some of the teachers singing to the tunes—that was a sight!

To end the year with a bang that class of mine decided it would be a great idea to get away from me for a day and plan a little "field trip". However, no teachers were invited. They went to Good Harbor Beach in Gloucester for the day. Everyone swam, baked in the sun, or played football. It was a good time had by all. Even the teachers back with me didn't fuss because it was a very challenging year and they could use a day to unwind and bond.

Another summer came and went and my favorite class became seniors. They ruled the school! They walked through my door with an air of confidence—it was going to be the best year of their life. So they thought. I took such a beating over the years that my phones were down. And that was not it, a lot changed that year because of the Education Reform Act. The school day became longer; homeroom became a "learning station"; the new language lab was finished (I wish Mr. Nicolosi was here to see it, instead he left for Arizona); an Academic Wall of Honor was painted in my main lobby by Mr. Nelson; and no longer could the kids have their cars in my parking lot without a P.V.M.H.S. Parking permit. Those poor kids—it had to happen to them! That is not all that ruined their year either. They all thought Junior year was their hardest year. Were they ever wrong! They had to worry about SATIs, SATIIs, and College Applications along with term papers, science fair projects and everything else that went along with their senior curriculum.

For the most part, though, the athletes took their stress out on their opponents on the field. The Field Hockey team was G.B.L. Champs which hasn't happened in I don't know how many years. The Football team beat Salem at home for the first time since 1987. The Golf team was G.B.L. Champs again. And girls soccer beat Arlington and Lynnfield for the first time in the four years those kids have been at the high school. This year would have been the first year that there would be a unity between the three cheering squads. In other words, if the football team were to go to the Superbowl all three squads would go in uniform and cheer under their coordinator Mrs. Garabedian.

Soon enough Halloween came around and it was time for the Senior Halloween Party. Once again it was held at the Community Life Center. On October 27, 1995 from 7:30 to 11:00 those kids had a great time. Once again there were not many but on the Monday after the party all who went were rubbing it in everyone's face who didn't attend what a great time they had. One of the highlights of the night was the arrival of THE VILLAGE PEOPLE. Were they ever a hit! The Dee Jays played a couple of songs in honor of them and they danced only like The Village People can. The Village People were Mike Proto, Jimmy Magos, Andy Hantzopoulos, Keith Soares, and Mike Liciardi. Other guests that night were The Care Bears, The Flintstones, zombie-like football cheerleaders, and a special appearance made by Brandon Lee who came back from the dead as The Crow. Most of the party moved on to Denny's afterward because they had such a great time. Those who didn't attend missed out on a good one.

Also, those kids had two very big fund raisers that fall. One was the Up With People Concession stand and the other was Camp Day. There were not many volunteers at the Concession stand but those who did help raised a lot of money for their class and got to see Up With People bring down the roof in my very own auditorium. Camp Day, on the other hand, was a whole different story. I think I still have nightmares of that day after Thanksgiving. Close to 200 kids ran all over my school. There were a lot of volunteers to keep things under control but poor Kim Priestley and Steve Shah had the "group." Adam Troupe tried to be a great Camp Counselor, but since he wouldn't sing Coolio the kids really didn't want anything to do with him. It may have been a tiring day for the workers but the outcome was fabulous. The class made about $1500 dollars. That was the end of their fundraisers. They were done; in less than a year I would be rid of them forever. In November it really hit me when they got measured for their caps and gowns right in my main lobby. Believe it or not, I was starting to get sad. I didn't want to see my favorite class go; not so soon, anyway.

The Senior semi-formal was held on February 9, 1996 once again at Jimmy's Allenhurst in Danvers. They had a great time. By February all of their college applications were passed in and all they had to do was wait for their mail in the spring. Therefore, they had nothing to worry about that night except for the fact that this was their last semi-formal together. They ate, drank, danced, laughed, and reminisced about old times with their friends. Those were the good times for that class; hopefully times they will never forget.

On June 6, 1996 their senior prom was held at the Longwarr Marriot amidst the bright lights of Boston. Everything was perfect, the food, the ice sculptures, the music. For the last time the senior class danced together as a group of friends. It was a special night that the class of '96 would always hold dear in their heart. The class officers that final year were Cheryl Bergeron as president; Evy Poulopoulos as vice president; Lisa Friedberg as secretary; and Kristen Sciolli as treasurer. They were not only class officers but they were their friends and they were happy to have served them. They were happy to be such an important part of the class of '96 and it's hard for them to say goodbye.

In June of 1996, approximately 1,350 days after they entered, the Class of 1996 graduated, and their days at Peabody High School became history.

Here we go in our separate ways, never forget these days. Memories of each other, ones which will be shared with no other friends we made throughout the years, now we share each other's tears. Dreams are now to be made come true, I hope you get to do all you've dreamed to. Goodbye my friends, the pleasure was all mine, and I hope that throughout life each one of you will always shine.

Cheryl Bergeron

SPORTS IN REVIEW

The 1995-96 field hockey season was the greatest season they have seen for a while. Captains Heidi O'Brien and Cheryl Bergeron led the team to be the first in the GBL. The team worked very hard for their record of 106-2 which was very impressive. The team was also lead by GBL all-stars Julie Celentano, Shannon Paulino, Gina Petrone, and Heidi O'Brien. The team had excellent attitudes and they all worked as a team and tried very hard which made the difference.

The 1995 football team had an amazing season! The tanners had a 9-1 record. The one loss that determined the super-bowl contenders was the loss to Arlington. The tanners were led by tri-captains Mike Masterson, Steve Shah, and Jason Perkins. Many of the seniors contributed greatly to their winning season, especially Mano Fanopoulos, Rick Berry, and Angelo Minichillo. For the third season in a row the tanners won the GBL title. Junior Frankie Candela had an outstanding season and was awarded all scholastic.

The 1995 boys soccer team had a good season. The tanners record of 6-10-1 was led by co-captains Mike Proto and Mark Silva. Other seniors who contributed to the season were Keith Soares, Chris Ward, Andy Hantzopoulos, and Jimmy Magos. The tanners should continue to have a great season next year as well.

The girls varsity soccer team was 14-5, this year overall and 13-3 in the GBL, led by co-captains, Rebecca Goncalves and Evy Poulopoulos and seniors, Loren Martinuk and Janine Orcutt. The tanners had a very successful season, which included a 3-1 win over Lynnfield, and a 2-0 win over Arlington. The girls made the tournament for the eleventh consecutive year and lost a challenging game to cross town rival, Bishop Fenwick. The strong team was composed of skilled seniors, juniors, sophmores and freshmen and should continue a winning season next year.

The Boys Cross Country team had a good season finishing 4-4, despite losing key members to graduation. The team was lead by co-captains Matt Dowling and Adam Provost, Junior Mike Brown along with rookies Neal Warfield, Lee Lubarsky, Brian Ackley, Sam Palmisano and John Hinchen also contributed to the team. This was a young team that should have high expectations for next year.

The 1995 PVMHS golf team, led by Coach George Hennesey, enjoyed another successful season winning the 13th GBL championship in 14 years, the team was led by senior captains John DeAngelo and Adam Troupe. Other seniors who contributed greatly were Brian Roderick, Todd Goldstein, and Eric Polonsky. DeAngelo was named GBL all-star for the 1995 season.

The 1995 Girls Cross Country Team earned the title of GBL champs through an 8-0 season. Led by Co-Captains Carrie Schultz and Christine Chin, with strong support from Angela Stefanilo, Leslie DiLando, Pam Woo, Jen Chase, and Andrea Hurwitz. The girls x-country team had a great season. The highlight of the season was a trip to New York to participate in the Manhattan Invitational. The girls x-country team would like to thank coach Sheridan from the co-captains and the rest of the team for a successful season.

The 1995 volleyball team had their first season in years. Leading the team were co-captains Loren Dullea and Katie Conlin. Other key players were Kim Senbargar Deanna Matthews Jennifer Nesnahan and Jenafer Brunton. This years team made it to the tournament for the second consecutive year. The team is coached by Toni Cassidy.

The 1995-96 gymnastics team were GBL champs for the 8th year in a row. Captains Nicole Charlebois, Melissa Reddick, and Kristen Coffin led the team to a 6-0 record. This year the team qualified for the MIAA gold awards and the team average was a 3.0 + GPA. The 1-league team players were Nicole Charlebois, Melissa Reddick, and Serena Wong. Nicole Charlebois and Kristen Coffin were the GBL all-stars.

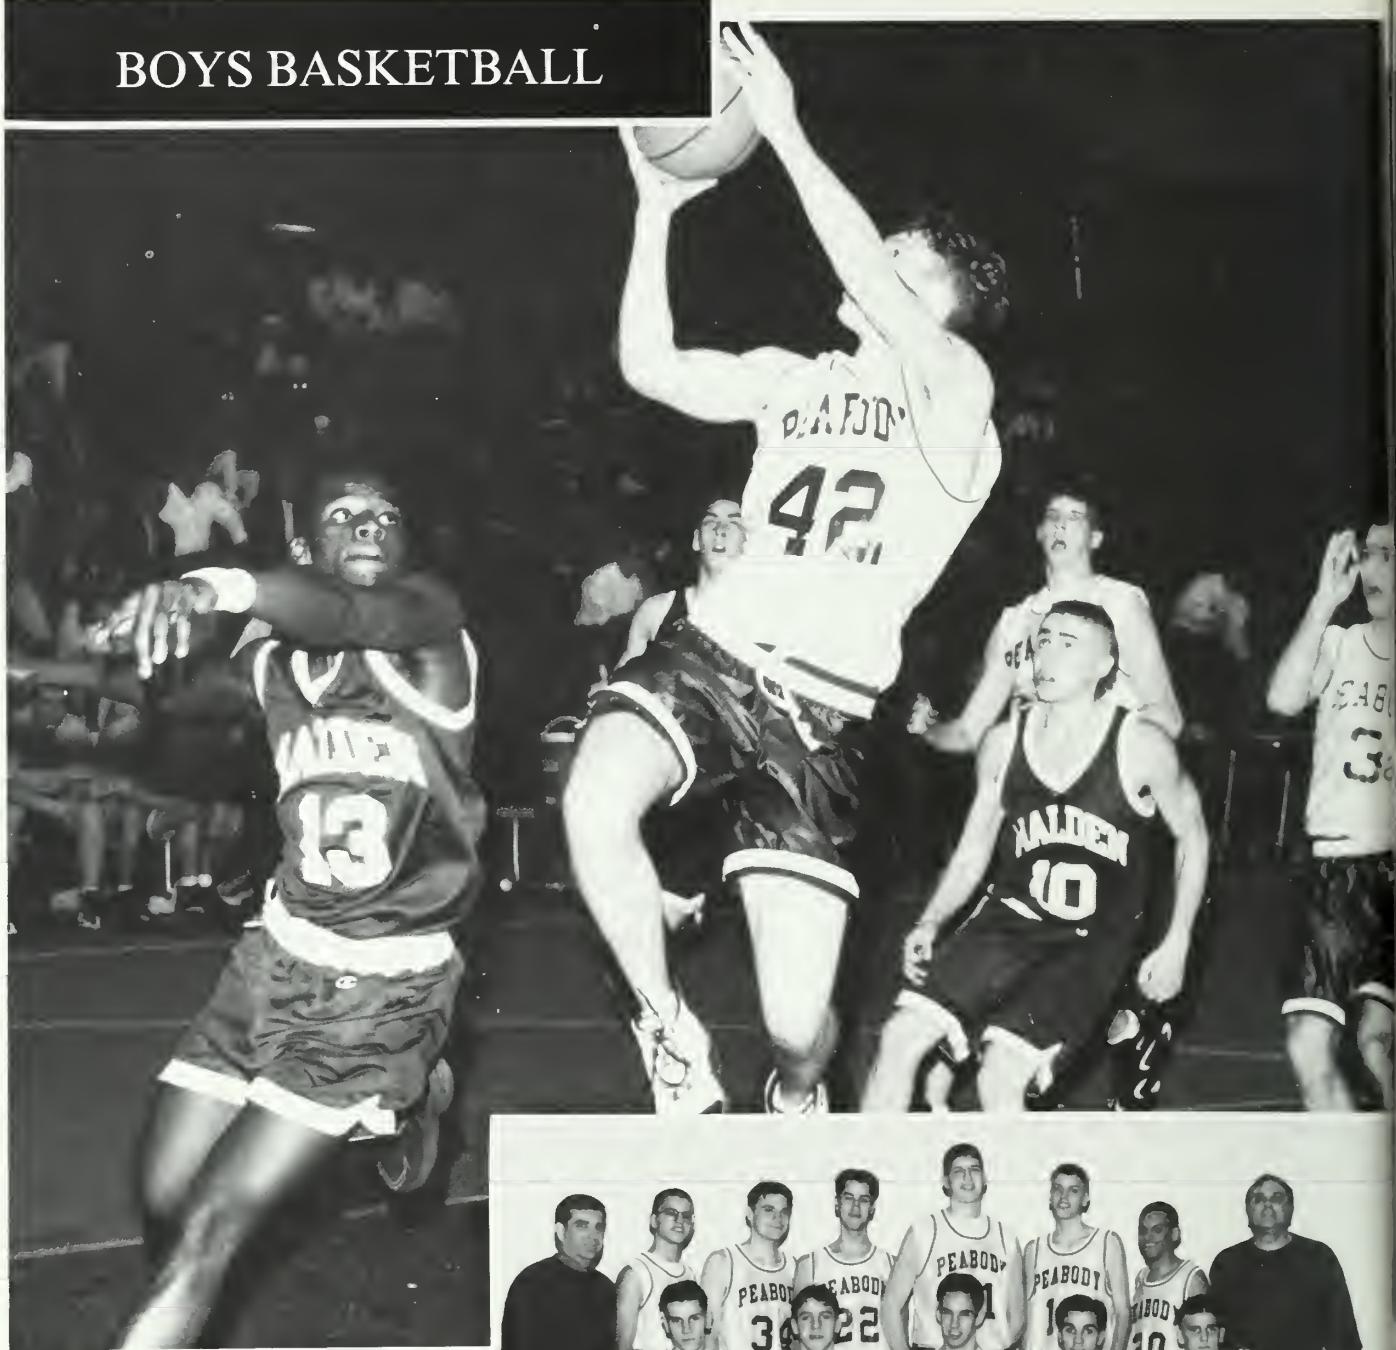

The Peabody High School Boys Basketball team finished its regular season with a 14-6 record. This record put them in third place in the GBL and gave them the 7th place seed in the Division 1 in the North State tournament. The tanners were led by team MVP and GBL all star Eric Peters, A Senior, who averaged 19pts per game. Seniors Mike Quade, a GBL All-Star, Ryan Matuza and Mike Masterson were very productive in helping the team to gain a tourney berth. Junior Rob Stein led the team in rebounding and blocked shots, while Bill Medeiros led the team in assists. Sophomores John Dullea and Mike Romano provided the necessary strength at the guard positions to help make team competitive.

The Peabody hockey team had a very impressive season considering both the coaches and the players were new. Coach Ken Gill had to leave due to job change and assistant coach Mark Leonard took over. This years' captain was senior Adam Slaven, with sophomore Pat Hinchion and junior Kevin Norwood as his assistants. Defensive leaders were sophomores Shaun Miville, seniors Justin Perry and Ron Kocur, while offensive leaders were sophomores Nicole Lewis, Pat Hinchion, and John Silvey. The tanners didn't have their best season but they did improve with every game and they will hopefully continue to improve for the years to come.

The Peabody High Girl's Basketball Team had lost six seniors to graduation and eighteen year coach Jane Heil to retirement. First year coach Diane Broughton did not know what to expect with such a young team, consisting of only one senior. The Tanners applied their size and strength with senior captain Deanna Matthews, Lissa Bloom, Colleen Provanzano, Katy Bishop and Lindsey Dulkis. The Tanners also utilized their speed and quickness with junior captain Tracey McKeen, Holly Soper, Alison Bradstreet, Liz Curtis, Darcie Wexler and Mindy Conville. The Tanners started off a disappointing 3-3, but then went on a 12 game win streak to finish the regular season 16-4 and tie for the Greater Boston League Championship. After defeating Brighton in the opening round of the tournament, they lost to Waltham in the second round and finished 17-5 overall. The Tanners are looking forward to next year losing only one senior, Deanna Matthews.

The 1996 football cheerleaders had a great time being for the 9-1 team when they worked very hard. They cheered for the 6th champs which made the season very exciting. They had a fun time traveling with the boys to all the other games and keeping the tanner spirit alive. The cheerleaders had a fun season and they hope you enjoyed watching them at the games. They hope to see you at the stadium next season.

BASKETBALL CHEERLEADERS

The Peabody High Basketball Cheerleading squad was chosen in June 1995. The squad is headed by captains and seniors, Kara Ventresco and Katie Allen. The squad has one other returning cheerleader and fifteen new girls.

The cheerleaders attended National Cheerleading Association Summer Camp at New Hampshire College where they earned N.C.A.'s Team Award, given to the squad that displays the most unity. The 1996 Basketball Cheerleaders also hold the distinction of being the first cheerleading squad from Peabody High to enter regional competition in many years. The squad has benefitted greatly from the experience and leadership of its captains, Katie & Kara.
